

	1 SASOL ORDINARY (SOL) SHARES	2 SASOL BEE ORDINARY (SOLBE1) SHARES	3 SASOL KHANYISA ORDINARY SHARES
Where do they trade? 	Trades on the JSE	Trades on the empowerment segment of the JSE	Does not trade – Shareholders will not be able to sell, transfer or encumber these shares during the life of the Sasol Khanyisa transaction
Who can trade these shares? 	Bought or traded by anyone	Bought or traded among Black ¹ South Africans only	Only available to permanently employed Black ¹ South African employees
What price do they trade at? 	Traded at a higher market determined price because there are more buyers in the market and larger volumes traded	Traded at a lower market determined price because there are currently fewer buyers in the market and smaller volumes traded	Sasol Khanyisa Ordinary Shares are not publicly traded
Do they earn dividends? 	Yes – If dividends are declared, the same dividends per share will be received for SOLBE1 shares and SOL shares Remember, there is no guarantee that dividends will be declared		If dividends are declared by SSA, they will be used to settle the funding costs associated with Sasol Khanyisa ESOP

1. As defined by the Department of Trade and Industry's (DTI) B-BBEE Codes of Good Practice

PLEASE NOTE

In 2021, employees still employed by the Sasol Group or those who have left as good leavers will, after taxation and costs have been deducted, be given full ownership of their shares

Your Sasol Khanyisa ordinary shares have ultimate ownership in SSA and will be exchanged for SOLBE1 shares in June 2028 or earlier if the funding has been repaid